TWO YOUTHS IN COURT FOR THEFTS

Two Cloverdale youths, brothers, were yesterday summoned to the Putnam Circuit court, to appear this forenoon, charged with stealing bicycles. They were Morris Jones, 15 years old, who was placed under arrest at school in Cloverdale Friday afternoon, and his brother, Raymond, 17 years old, was found working on a farm north of where he lives. Raymond was taken in custody by State Police Detective Roy Newgent and Chief of Police Edward Maddox of Greencastle but Morris was permitted to finish his day in school, to appear in court in Greencastle today.

The two live four miles west of Cloverdale and one of the bicycles was found there, it is reported by the police, but the second one had been traded to another youth in Cloverdale.

The bicycle whose theft is charged to Morris was taken from the High School building in Greencastle two weeks ago. It is owned by William Lane, 724 east Seminary street. The machine charged against the other Jones is owned by "Monk" Dunn,

Reds To Refuse Wartime Duty

WOULD NOT SUPPORT AMERICA
IN HELPING ALLIES, FOSTER
BLUNTLY TELLS DIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—A flat assertion by William Z. Foster, Communist Party chairman, that he would not support the United States
if it entered the present "imperialistic war" in aid of France and Great Britain highlighted Friday's hearing
before the Dies committee.

The grim, unsmiling witness not only declared that he would withhold his own personal support, but would recommend that the party do likewise.

Foster's views were brought out
by Chairman Dies, who asked:

"In event of war between the United States and Soviet Russia
where would your allegiance lie?"

"I'm for the defense of the United States and the maintenance of its national independence and the democratic system and the eventual establishment of Socialism," Foster replied.

"As far as war against any country is concerned I wouldn't walk blindly into that war, if it was an imperialistic war."

"In the present war would you support the United States government?" Dies cut in.

"If the United States entered on an imperialistic basis I would not support it."

Dies then asked specifically whether Foster would support this country's government if the United States entered the present struggle
on the English-French side.

"Under the present setup I regard it as an imperialistic war and under that I would not support the United States," the poker-faced witness answered.

Spectators who had observed a strict silence when the witness made that declaration, stood up and cheered when Dies suggested at the hearing's end that the Communist Party should be disbanded in the United States.

Inscriptions On Grave Markers Show Overlapping Of Indian And White Settlers

That there was an overlapping of Indian and white settlers life in Putnam county, through ten years or so, back more than a hundred years, is indicated by the inscriptions on grave markers in the little, old burying ground—dating back to pioneer
years—at the site of Chief Peter Cornstalk's village a short distance
north of the Putnam-Montgomery county line, northwest of Roachdale
a couple of miles.

There was a church there dating back more than a hundred years, known as the Cornstalk church, and the graves now in evidence there were principally of white persons buried there who were more or less closely connected with the church.
The evidence of overlapping of the Indian and white life is indicated by the inscriptions on some of the grave stones.

Some of the persons whose remains were interred there were born in the 18th century, or very early in the 19th.

Mary Dickerson, wife of John R.
Dickerson, who died in 1861 at the age of 74 years. And John R. Dickerson himself died in 1869 at the age of 89 years, he thus having been born in 1780. W. A. Harney, a relative of the George Harney who lived in Greencastle some years back, is buried there. Robert C. Lane was 88 years old when he died in 1852. He was born in 1774, a stirring year in American history. "Queen Anne" Rogers is buried there, too, but the inscription of her birth date is not distinct. Lucas Baldwin was 56 when he died in 1842.

Other persons buried there, born
early in the 19th century, include Rebecca Dickerson, dying in 1839 at the age of 19 years and 9 months.
Sarah M. Brookshire was born in 1819. Courtney, wife of S. Hostetter, was 22 years old when she died in 1838. James T. Dolins, buried there was born in 1827. Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Graybill, was born in 1811
and died in 1873.

Chief Cornstalk brought his small tribe of Miamis across Ohio and a part of Indiana, in 1790, from their former town site in West Virginia,
across the Ohio river from our present location.

Fillmore Band Wins Honors

PLACED SECOND IN CONTEST
HELD AT CRAWFORDSVILLE
FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Its showing in the band contest
at the fall festival at Crawfordsville, yesterday, won for the Fillmore band an award of thirty dollars. They rated second. First place was won by the Newport band, which won high honor at the Cloverdale Centennial, in July Perryville was third.
The Cloverdale band received a ten dollar prize for its excellence, although it did not place among the first three.

ROBBERY AT D. P. U. GYM FRIDAY NOON

STUDENTS LOSE VALUABLES
FROM GYMNASIUM
LOCKERS

CASH WAS ALSO TAKEN

Believe Theft Took Place Shortly Before Noon When Building Was Unattended

The girls' quarters at the DePauw gymnasium building were invaded by a thief, about noon, yesterday, and the visit was costly to a few of the girls and less costly to a number of others. Cigarette cases figured in the list of stolen property.

The worst sufferer was Miss Juel Maddox, daughter of Edward Maddox, chief of police of Greencastle, which may be just too bad for the thief, because the chief has a personal incentive as well as official, to bring the culprit into court. Miss Maddox lost $14 in cash from her locker, along with an expensive
Alpha Chi frate pin and a valuable ring.

Miss Ellis Randel, daughter of Clyde Randel, of Terre Haute, formerly of Greencastle, is without a costly cigarette case, as a result of the depredation. Other girls lost money and cigarette cases, and other personal property, the total loss of all of them being estimated at about $25.

Chief of Police Edward Maddox made an investigation of the robbery, and he has some evidence, with an expectation of getting more,
probably sufficient to justify the issuing of a warrant.

State Tax Rate Left Unchanged

ANNOUNCEMENT THROWS
LIGHT ON EXPECTED LOCAL PAYMENTS

The announcement that the State Department of Treasury had determined to let the state tax rate remain at 15 cents on each one hundred dollars of valuation for 1940 removed one item of doubt as to the exact amount of total taxes to be paid locally.

The state tax rate is a part of the local tax payments and until information was given out as to the exact rate for state purposes the total local payments could not be determined.

There were some shiftings of the various rates for state purposes making up the total of 15 cents, but the changes were so made that the total rate was not lowered. The state treasury department could not raise the total rate, because of legislative restrictions. It could have lowered it, legally, but did not.

The only chance now for any change in the total taxes to be paid in each taxing unit of the county, as given heretofore in The Daily Banner, is for the state tax board to make reductions, which is not likely to occur.

Dr. W. R. Hutcheson is reported slightly improved at his home on east Washington street.

FINISH FIGHT THREATENED BY GERMANS

DECLARATION AT MOSCOW
CALLED FINAL PEACE
OVERTURE

WILL NOT CONSIDER POLAND

German Position Said To Be That
It Is Time To Call
Off War

BERLIN, Sept. 30 (UP)—Germany will fight the war to a finish with every weapon and every means necessary to ensure victory if Great Britain and France reject the Russo-German peace overture, Nazi informants said today.

It was said authoritatively that the joint German-Russian declaration at Moscow that it was time to call off the war, constituted a final peace offer, and that Adolf Hitler would not, unless the situation changed sent any formal direct bid to the allied powers.

If the Allied governments wanted
any points cleared up, it was said,
they could obtain the information
from their Ambassadors at Moscow.

Informants emphasized, however,
that there could be no questioning of the division of Poland between Germany and Russia. That, they said, was not a point for negotiation.

Despite the immediate firm statement in official quarters in London and Paris that the Russo-German overture was totally unacceptable, Nazis professed not to believe that official rejection was certain.

"We ask Britain and France to think again," an authoritative source said. "One can not imagine governments or responsible individuals in London and Paris rejecting this offer when they have had time to give more consideration to the tremendous historical implications of the agreement signed at Moscow."

Just what joint measures Germany and Russia might take if their peace bid were rejected, Germans refused to say. From the cautious tone of Nazi commentators, however, neutral observers got the idea that Russia had given the Nazis no promise of military support and that the extent of Russia's support for the present at least would be limited to purely political and economic spheres.

Germany's position for the moment, it was said, is:

1—Germany urgently desires, in cooperation with Russia and other friendly states including Italy, to induce Britain and France to call off
the war.

2—She holds that the Allies need feel no shame if they reconsider now for the last time, whether there is to be peace or a finish fight.

3—Poland is dead and Germany and Russia alone will say what shall be done regarding the area that was Poland.

LONDON, Sept. 30 (UP)—Great Britain and Turkey have completed the draft of a definite pact of mutual assistance and a Turkish military mission is on its way to London to negotiate with the British government, it was understood today.

SCHOOL NEWS

By Miss Edith Greenleaf

The Hi-Y Club of Greencastle High School held its first annual meeting of the year Wednesday. Thirteen members from last year were present. Plans were made for electing new members. Also, the club decided upon this year's program, which will be more extensive than in the past. The organization hopes to raise larger funds and be able to do even more for their school this year.

The first grade of Miller School won the attendance picture at the first P. T. A. meeting of the year. Forty-two per cent of the mothers of the room were present.

The Senior Class at the High School held its first class meeting Thursday. The following officers were elected for the year: Anna Moore, president; Danny Hanna, vice-president; Mary Ann Newgent, secretary; and Elizabeth Schoenman, treasurer.

Mrs. Vanlandingham, a patron of Jones School, treated all the children with apples this week.

The Junior Class at the High School will meet to elect officers next week. Their main objective for the coming year is to raise funds sufficient to finance a Junior-Senior Prom in the Spring. Miss Walls is the head sponsor of the class, other sponsors are Mr. Ross and Mr. Ogles.

Mr. Jeshel, Mr. Lawhead, and Mr. Wagner, all students from DePauw University, have listened to the Chapel talks at DePauw on the European situation and have reviewed these talks for the history classes at the High School. Their work has been both entertaining and interesting for the history students.

Mrs. Walker's First Grade at Third Ward is very sorry to lose Sonya Uterback, who is moving to Hammond, Indiana.

Miss Williams was absent from her duties Thursday, due to illness. This was her first absence in her teaching career.

The Fifth Grade of the Ridpath School elected Wanita Pitts as the president of the class, Iola Cook as secretary, and Edward Mason as vice-president.

The Industrial Arts Department at the High School has added to their equipment a complete oxy-acetylene welding outfit, which was obtained from the Indiana Oxygen Company.

Students and teachers of First Ward School are grateful for a phonograph and several records, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Stoner.

Before school was out last spring, the Sixth Grade at Third Ward planted some cotton seeds. At the close of school the plants were given to the children, with the exception of one plant, which was kept by the teacher, who brought it to school this fall. The children in the room this year are enjoying watching the bolls burst, showing the cotton.

The members of the Junior Red Cross Council of the Jones School are Paul Stewart, Barbara McGill, Patty Rensburg, Jerry Ashworth, Winifred Feld, Tommy Elstjorge, Wanda Buis, Frank Grimes, Ramona Lee Glover, George Stettay, Jimmy Humphrey, and Patty Ash.

The first meeting of the Council was held Thursday afternoon, at which time plans for the year were discussed. Patty Ash was made president of the council and Ramona Lee Glover, secretary.

Miller School has joined the National Junior Red Cross. This includes the payment of fifty cents per room to national headquarters.

BELIEVE RUSSIA GAINS BY GERMAN AGREEMENT

MOSCOW, Sept. 30.—(UP)—Foreign diplomatic quarters expressed belief today that Russia had gained a victory in its new agreement with Germany.

It was said that the only real commitment made by Russia was an offer to supply raw materials in exchange for industrial products, and that in return Russia had gained a free hand in the Baltic which Germany had regarded as a private hunting ground.

Admitting that Germany had obtained the larger share of Poland, informants said that Russia, by agreeing to a division along ethnic lines, had put within its borders a predominantly White Russian and Ukrainian population, with only a few Poles, while Germany had been left to decide what to do with more than 10,000,000 Poles who want freedom.

Russia was quick to follow up its first move in the Baltic—the "agreement" with Estonia by which it obtained the right to build naval and air bases on two Estonian islands and at an Estonian port.

POPE ADDRESSES POLES
CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, Sept. 30 (UP)—Pope Pius, tears streaming from his eyes, addressed an audience of sobbing Poles today on the tragedy that had overtaken their country. It was the saddest audience of the new Pope's reign.

The Pope expressed the hope that Germany and Russia would permit Catholics to worship in what had been Poland, and that through justice and charity peace might be restored to the world.

Paul Black left Friday for New York City, called there by the critical illness of his mother, Mrs. Lucy Black, who will be remembered here by many friends. She has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Sloan in New York for the past several years.

Mrs. Flora B. Eastham, living near 1712more, left at the office of the Daily Banner this morning, a sweet potato which had chosen a hard, freakish way to develop, instead of the normal, easy way. It had compelled one end of itself to go through a small glass bottle, as the potato grew, and the tuber reached maturity with the bottle neck encircling that part of it as a collar, or a girdle.

INCREASE FRITZ KUHN'S BOND FOLLOWING HEARING

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(UP)—Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German-American Bund, was committed to the Tombs last night after his bail on a larceny charge was raised from $5,000 to $50,000 and he was unable to raise it.

His counsel quickly obtained a writ of habeas corpus calling for Kuhn's appearance in court today on a petition for reduction of the bail.

General Sessions Judge Cornelius F. Collins increased the bail after secret information had been whispered to him on the bench by Assistant District Attorney Milton Schilback.

Kuhn is charged with stealing $14,548 from his own organization. Twelve larceny and forgery counts were returned in the indictments against him last May.

When Counsel for Kuhn protested the high bail and said that the bund leader would not leave the country Judge Collins replied:

Local Building Still Very Active

ANY PEOPLE PREPARE FOR WINTER BY REMODELING, REPAIRING

Remodeling and repairing in and around Greencastle is still in its up-climb as many people prepare for the fall and winter.

Mr. Robert Masterson has sold his house on the corner of Illinois and Apple street to Paul Butler. She started to remodel and repair the house across the street, making it more modern with the addition of bath, basement, etc.

N. Hardy in Northwood has purchased some knotty white pine for having bookcases and paneling put in his home.

Miss Gladys Rogers, who recently purchased a house at the corner of Main and Hanna streets, is doing an extensive remodeling and repairing.

B. Love, northwest of Greencastle is remodeling and doing some work.

Mr. Van Denman Thompson, of DePaw University music school, having hardwood floors put in his house.

Well Arnold, of near Fillmore, and Brothers, in Madison township, having poultry houses built and remodeling done at their place.

MODERNIZATION CUTS ACCIDENTS IN BATHROOMS

Modernization tends to reduce the number of accidents occurring in bathrooms, as most modern bathroom equipment has safety features not found in the models manufactured years ago.

No longer need the purchase and installation of new bathroom fixtures demand an immediate cash outlay, as the cost can now be budgeted out over a number of months under the Modernization Credit Plan of the Federal Housing Administration. Funds for the work are obtainable from lending institutions qualified by FHA.

Among improvements which may make the bathroom safer are replacement of high tubs on legs with the modern streamlined baths only 16 inches from floor to rim; the replacement of china faucet handles with metal handles; and the installation of grab bars over the tub, particularly if there is a shower.

Questions-Answers

Q. Should awnings be taken down for the winter?

A. Yes. As soon as the need for them is no longer felt, they should be taken down and stored in a dry place. With such care they will last much longer than if left outside to rot in the weather.

Q. In my locality there are a large number of houses of wood-frame construction with a thin veneer of stone laid on edge. Is this method of laying stone considered good practice?

A. Although it is accepted practice in some localities, it is not recommended. Stone should be laid upon its natural bed.

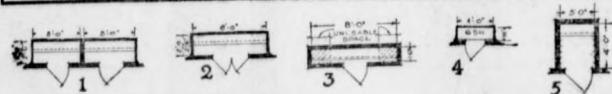

Q. I should like to have some additional radiators installed in my house. How can I find out if my furnace will stand the additional load?

A. You should consult a heating engineer.

Q. Should a garden pool be drained before winter?

A. In localities which are subject to freezes, garden pools should be drained and filled with either straw or leaves. Sometimes a wooden cover is used. Supply pipes to the pool should also be drained.

Planning Closet Space

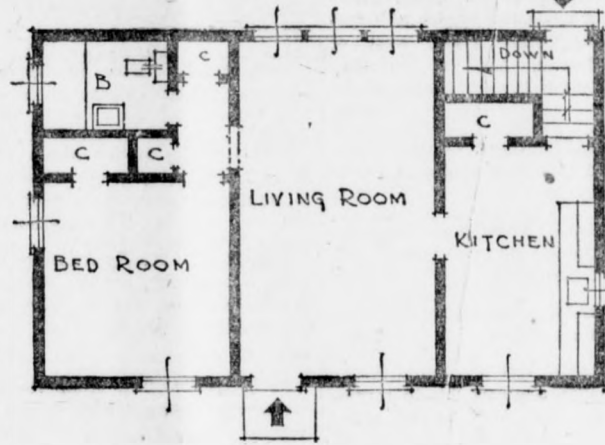

Ample storage space should be provided in the home, Federal Housing Administration officials say. While it is impossible to fix a rule for the amount of closet space that will be universally applicable, it is advisable to have at least one closet for each bedroom, a linen closet, and one in which to hang hats and coats. In the illustrations above, FHA officials point out that Number 1 supplies a generous arrangement for bedroom closets; Number 2 is considered a good hanging closet; Number 3 is too shallow and long—the end spaces are good only for dead storage; Number 4 is a small but well-arranged linen closet; and Number 5 illustrates a closet space narrow and deep, which is inconvenient.

The Minimum Home

This is a good model of the minimum home. Reduced to utmost simplicity, the house contains only living room, kitchen, bedroom, and bath. Typical of many homes in this class, this model differs in the relatively greater amount of space given the living room. A mortgage of $3,600 on the home was insured by the Federal Housing Administration after FHA appraisers assigned the property a valuation of $4,200. Monthly payment of $24.48, excluding taxes and hazard insurance, will amortize the mortgage in 20 years.

SLIDING DOORS AID TO SPACE SAVING

Sliding doors for bedroom closets not only are efficient space savers but when well chosen also provide a fine wall decoration. They may be installed under the Modernization Credit Plan of FHA.

IMPORTANCE OF COLOR IN HOME IS EXPLAINED

Psychologists have long attached considerable weight to the influence of color on life and health, but the average person has felt little concern over whatever psychological factors are associated with color.

Because light colors are regarded as having a stimulating and cheerful effect on most people, hospitals have usually considered this in choosing colors for their rooms. Also it is generally conceded that dark colors are likely to be depressing, but not all home owners think of these influences when choosing colors for their homes.

The extent to which industry has explored the science of color is shown by a report of a color engineer engaged to arrange interior decoration of planes. He reported that a green motif would help prevent air-sickness, while brown and yellow might induce it.

The effects of colors on human moods have been described as follows by a doctor who recently studied the subject:

Red: A stimulating color which excites and increases the working power of the brain.

Yellow: A stimulating color which helps energize the brain.

Green: Not necessarily depressing; possesses cooling effects and is useful in the abatement of excitement; counteracts brightness of solar light.

Black: Useful for toning strong colors and not actually depressing; best use is in combinations.

White: Cheerful and attracts sunlight; white alone is cold but stimulating if used with red, yellow, or orange.

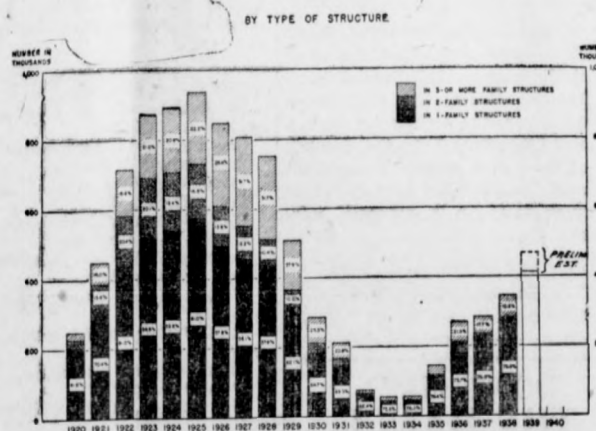

Brown: Restful and warming, but depressing if used alone; best effects are combined with orange, yellow and gold.

Purple, mauve: Sedative, soothing, and conducive to sleep.

Children Favor Red
Most young children prefer red, the report declared, but in later years color which have a soothing influence, such as blue or green, are preferred.

Whether or not the right colors and color combinations in homes are important for both health and efficiency may still be an open subject, but it is generally felt that the factor should receive consideration from the home owner who is setting out to redecorate his house. The home may be painted or papered with funds obtained from qualified lending institutions under the Modernization Credit Plan of the Federal Housing Administration.

ESTIMATED NUMBER OF NON-FARM DWELLING UNITS BUILT ANNUALLY

COMMENTS

NO ACCURATE FIGURES EXIST AS TO THE NUMBER OF DWELLING UNITS BUILT ANNUALLY IN THE UNITED STATES. THESE ESTIMATES ARE BASED ON CENSUS DATA AND ON BUILDING PERMITS DATA REPORTED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS. THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF ECONOMIC RESEARCH ESTIMATES WERE USED FOR 1920-1925. ESTIMATES FOR 1926 TO DATE WERE MADE BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS AND THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION.

THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION INSURES MORTGAGES ON STRUCTURES CONTAINING ONE TO FOUR FAMILY DWELLING UNITS INCLUSIVE. ALSO MORTGAGES ON MODERATE PRICED APARTMENTS. THE BASIC DATA PRECLUDE ANY SEPARATION OF THE ESTIMATES BY THESE PRECISE TYPES.

Remodeling Adds To House Value

Modernization can restore the charm of past centuries and endow it with the comforts and conveniences of modern life, declares an editorial in House and Garden which answers the question "Why modernize?"

Nine reasons why modernization should be profitable were given. They are:

1. It may cost less than buying or building a new house.

2. The owner may make his home more efficient and improve its resale value by careful replanning.

3. The home owner may obtain FHA-insured loans for modernization work up to $2,500 on easy terms from his local bank.

4. Modes of life have changed since the original house was built. The wide porch on the front is no longer desired, but a shaded terrace in the garden at the rear is wanted.

5. There are new materials available which make the house more practical and comfortable.

6. New mechanical equipment is more convenient and efficient than any available at the time the house was built.

7. The house may be out of style with modern ideas of good architectural taste.

8. The owner may want genuine antique detail but should not deprive himself of efficient plumbing and heating and other modern equipment.

9. The owner may be tired of his present surroundings and feel that it is time to freshen up the decoration, to give the house a new coat of paint and paper, and maybe even to put in some new windows.

MIRROR PANELS BRIGHTEN ROOMS

Dimensions take a holiday when there is a mirror-paneled wall in the room.

Not only because they lend a sense of unlimited spaciousness to interiors, mirrored areas are becoming increasingly popular also because they brighten "twilight corners" and are smartly modern as well.

Large mirror panels may be built into the wall over and around a fireplace, on a side or end wall, or anywhere else it is desired in the room.

Storm Windows Aid Insulation

OPERATION PROVES EFFECTIVE IN FUEL ECONOMIES; GROWING MORE POPULAR

An important factor in home insulation this Winter will be the use of storm-sash windows, which because of proven fuel economies have been growing in popularity each year.

Where these storm sash are used the insulating fall of captive air between the two sheets of glass keeps the inner glass near room temperature. Where only one glass serves the window the cold outside air chills the glass to nearly its own temperature, while on the inside the warm air is chilled in contact with this cold glass.

Recent studies have shown that large fuel economies are possible with storm-sash windows in those areas where Winters are severe, because glass areas are known to be one of the greatest sources of heat loss in the home.

In addition, the pocketed air space between the regular window and the storm sash has sound insulation qualities and tends to deaden street noises, which are magnified by the stillness of winter air.

Storm sash are eligible for installation under the Modernization Credit Plan of the Federal Housing Administration. Most builders recommend that the sash be installed to permit opening in mild Winter weather. Funds for the work, when undertaken under the FHA plan, are obtainable from qualified lending institutions.

Vocastile

There have been "Cinderella" stories before, marking the rise of persons from poor surroundings to success in motion pictures. But no magic wand was ever waved more wisely than the one which singled out Linda Ware, fourteen-year-old girl possessed of one of the world's most remarkable singing voices, and marked her for a sensational successful motion picture debut in Bing Crosby's new singing cavalcade of show business, "The Star Maker," which will be presented locally on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Vocastile Theatre.

The waver of the magic wand was none other than Charles R. Rogers, producer of "The Star Maker," who has discovered many talented unknowns and made them stars.

Granada

Heralded as one of the most unusual films ever to come out of Hollywood, "The Women," with an all-star cast of 135 actresses headed by Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Rosalind Russell, opens at the Granada Theatre Sunday for an engagement of three days.

The story, based upon Clare Boothe's Broadway stage success of the same name, weaves the everyday experiences of women into an exciting comedy-drama into which laughs and tears are skilfully blended. Ultra-modern settings, smart clothes and a fashion parade add eye-filling beauty as a background to the razor-sharp dialogue.

Miss Shearer appears as Mary Haines, her first modern society role since "Ripley." Joan Crawford is seen as the siren Crystal Allen, and Rosalind Russell as the inveterate gossip, Sylvia Fowler.

Chateau

Joan Blondell has danced on the vaudeville stage, on Broadway and in motion pictures. She thought she knew the routine of every terpsichorean invention, and then she was assigned a co-starring role with Melvyn Douglas in Columbia's "Good Girls Go to Paris," showing at the Chateau Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

For her characterization in the picture, Miss Blondell was required to dance the old-fashioned "square dance." It was one routine she had to master under the guidance of a special instructor.

The dance highlights a scene at the mansion of eccentric millionaire Walter Connolly. Other players who participate in the scene include Alan Curtis, Joan Perry, Isabel Jeans, Stanley Brown, and James Craig.

"GRAVE MARKERS"

ent Gallipolis, Ohio, after his uncle, the senior Chief Cornstalk, had been murdered by white men at the gate of the fort at the site of Gallipolis, and settled where the Cornstalk church later was built.

It was principally from that Indian town that parties of the Redskins came who traversed north and central Putnam county, having summer camps on Big Walnut, one of them, north of the water works dam, another in Marion township on a tributary of Big Walnut, and others at various locations, always on a stream and near a strong spring, to furnish fishing and drinking water, respectively.

The Indians had trouble with the white settlers. The Cornstalk Indians were moved out by white soldiers in 1832, to far distant Kansas or Indian Territory, where they were located on reservations.

NEW OLDS CLUTCH
IS AUTO SENSATION

Three new Oldsmobile series for 1940—two sixes and an eight—with marked changes in styling and impressive increases in wheelbase length and overall dimensions, make their appearance today O. W. Hollowell, dealer announced. Bigger and better throughout in body and chassis alike, the new Oldsmobiles reveal striking advances in comfort, safety, power and beauty.

Headlining all features of the 1940 Oldsmobile offerings is the introduction of a feature called Hydramatic Drive—a combination of liquid flywheel and fully automatic transmission, which reduces driving to its simplest, easiest terms. The conventional clutch assembly is entirely eliminated. There are no clutch parts to wear out and replace. The clutch pedal itself is gone, leaving no work for the left foot to do. To start the car you simply step on the starter, move a valve-actuating lever into forward position, and then step on the accelerator.

Changes from low, through second and third, and into fourth, or cruising gear, are entirely automatic. Gears, incidentally, are always in mesh—so that there can be no clashing of gears or chipping of gear teeth. This means also that the engine serves as a brake on down grades.

To stop the car the driver simply steps on the brake. With no clutch to press and no gears to shift, there's nothing for the driver to do but steer, "step on it," and stop. The feature is available at an extra cost in all three series of cars.
